PRIME MINISTER OF ONTARIO

Government exists to serve people.

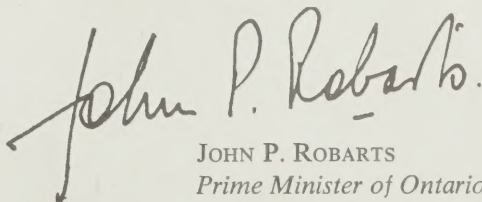

The extent of this service is dramatically illustrated by this catalogue of more than 470 programs operated by the Government of Ontario, on behalf of the people of Ontario.

The majority of these services are available directly to individuals. Others are available to organizations, businesses, municipalities, local boards, commissions and authorities. In all cases, their purpose is to help the people of this province to achieve their social and economic goals.

This catalogue was prepared by the Ontario Economic Council with the assistance of all departments and agencies of the Government of Ontario. Its purpose is to be a bridge between those who seek government assistance and the branch or agency which has the responsibility of providing assistance.

This directory of services will be provided to elected Members of the Legislature and to all provincial government offices. It will be available at cost to the public through the offices of the Queen's Publisher.

May I solicit your suggestions for the improvement of this directory of Ontario Government Services. I am confident that it will be of great use to the residents of Ontario and will be of particular assistance to elected members and government officials as they perform even more effectively their duties as servants of the public.

JOHN P. ROBARTS

Prime Minister of Ontario

| NATURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM | The purpose of this program is to provide water and sewage treatment facilities to municipalities who would not otherwise have been able to afford them. Under the provincial ownership plan the Ontario Water Resources Commission arranges financing through Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and carries out construction and operation of plants and systems. Ownership of the facilities remains with the Province. The municipality then buys treated water or waste treatment services as needed on a use basis. The rate for these services is based on cost of construction and operation of the works. |

The Foundation encourages the development of career research workers by appointing to its staff Research Associates and Research Fellows who are seconded for duty at the hospitals, universities and clinics in the Province. Research programs are conducted by the Foundation in the larger of its regional clinics. The Foundation supports, through annual grants, an extensive program in clinical research at the hospitals and universities in the Province. The Foundation also supports a program of development of more sophisticated prostheses for patients who have been treated surgically.

CANCER DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT

| NATURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM | The purpose of this program is to provide specialized facilities for the diagnosis and treatment of cancer in Ontario under the aegis of The Ontario Cancer Treatment and Research Foundation, an agency of the Province of Ontario. The specialized treatment facilities are largely radio-therapeutic, organized on a centralized regional basis. There is a growing tendency for chemotherapy cases to be centralized at these regional centres but no attempt has been made to centralize the treatment of cancer by surgery. The regional treatment centres in Ottawa, Kingston, London, Hamilton, Windsor, and Thunder Bay are administered and financed by the Foundation and are located in space leased by the Foundation in hospitals in those cities. The Toronto regional centre is The Ontario Cancer Institute, also an agency of the Province of Ontario, and it embodies the Princess Margaret Hospital which includes 175 beds. Twenty-one consultative and follow-up clinics are conducted in other locations in the Province. At these clinics, the therapeutic radiologists of the regional centre consult with local physicians and surgeons. Lodges are operated by the Foundation in Toronto, London, and Hamilton, where ambulatory cancer patients may receive free accommodation while they are receiving treatment. Free transportation to the treatment centres and consultative clinics is provided for needy patients. |

In addition, the Board is empowered to deal with unlawful strikes and lockouts and to grant consent to the institution of prosecution under the Hospital Labour Disputes Arbitration Act, 1965. |

As a last resort, if the party at fault again refuses to change his discriminatory policies, prosecution will be initiated. The Commission's major concern is with acquainting the public of the provisions of the Code and eliminating all overt acts of discrimination. The Commission co-operates with educational, religious, ethnic, labour and welfare groups in planning conferences, seminars, etc. on human rights. |

AIR OPERATIONS

|-------------------------------|---|
| NATURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM | The purpose of this program is primarily to assist in the protection and management of the province's forest resources. The Department of Lands and Forests maintains a fleet of aircraft to meet the flying requirements of the department and the special needs of other government departments. Because Lands and Forests' aircraft are deployed in a variety of locations in all parts of the province, they are called upon in many emergency situations. The Lands and Forests' planes are used to search for people lost in inaccessible areas and to fly mercy flights when other means of transportation are not readily available. |
| WHO CAN APPLY                 | The Lands and Forests' air service is primarily used for departmental purposes, but can be made available to the general public for use in an acute emergency.  |

| NATURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM  | The purpose of this program is to assist the commercial fish industry in the catching, processing, handling and marketing of fish. Commercial fisheries are licenced by the Department of Lands and Forests. The Licences are reviewed on a continuing basis in the light of changing biological and economic conditions. This is done in order to ensure a sustained yield by preventing over-exploitation of fisheries resources. Work with the industry on all phases of its operations is carried on by the department to improve techniques used in the industry. This is accomplished through the operation of an intelligence service, workshops and other methods of communication. |   |  |

PREDATOR CONTROL

|--|---|
| NATURE ANDPURPOSE OFPROGRAM | Three main species of predators, namely the wolf, coyote and black bear cause damage to farm livestock and in particular areas a control program is required. Since the damage can usually be attributed to one or two particular animals in each local situation, predator control programs are largely directed to eliminating the troublesome individuals. Coyotes prey upon sheep in open agricultural areas. Wolves take a few sheep on those areas adjacent to the wolf range which is usually more heavily forested land. Bears are known to prey upon young cattle and notably on bee farms or apiaries. Predator control is under the direction of a specialist in Main Office and there are 50 conservation officers on the field staff of the Fish and Wildlife Branch who have received training in predator control. Field officers are skilled in effective trapping methods. An extension workshop program for farmers and trappers is also conducted. |
| WHO CANAPPLY                     | Any person requiring the services of the conservation officers to control predators.   |

MASTER INDEX

The master index used in this catalogue was developed by the Office of Economic Opportunity in the United States.

The purpose of the index is to assist the user to find programs relevant to his field of interest. The programs are included under as many categories as possible. Therefore some of the key categories such as education or social guidance have fairly extensive citations.

The check list on the right hand side of the program category page is simply a quick guide to the nature of the program. The following definitions may be helpful in interpreting the system.

- Individuals —this is checked whenever a program is available to a person or family
- Organizations —refers to businesses, voluntary organizations or other groups
- Municipalities —includes municipalities, boards and commissions at the local government level
- Grants —generally speaking this is used to refer to conditional grants to municipalities or other specific grant programs
- Loans —refers to loans made to individuals, organizations or others
- Other Financial—refers to other types of financial aid such as bursaries, scholarships, etc.
- Consultation —refers to the provision of consultation or advisory services
- Services —refers to the provision of a direct service
- Other —generally used to indicate the licensing or control aspects of a program

This breakdown of government programs is based on the assumption that these programs are available to people, groups or governments and that they involve financial assistance, consultation or a direct service. The check list is a shorthand method of indicating the nature of the program.

A program checked as "Municipalities" and "Grants" will refer to a grant program available only to municipalities, boards or commissions. Obviously, the more complex the program, the more items that will be checked. The purpose of the system is to allow the user to eliminate programs which do not apply and thus reduce the number of programs that need to be looked up in the descriptions.
